AT THE
SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL
PONCA CITY HOMA

Dedication . . .

• • •

In recognition of twelve years of noble, unselfish service enriched by a spirit of loyalty, a sympathetic understanding and a rare sense of humor, this the second volume of the Cat Tale is affectionately dedicated to Charles P. Howell, Superintendent of the Ponca City Schools.

DURING MY TWELVE YEARS of association with Ponca City High School it has been a pleasant satisfaction to observe the growth of school traditions, school spirit, and student accomplishments. The keenest joy has come in the realization that with our growth in numbers has come in even greater degree an eagerness to improve and a will to grow in the things of the mind and the spirit. It is gratifying to note with what initiative you make decisions between the good and that which is even better—a mark of progressive thinking.

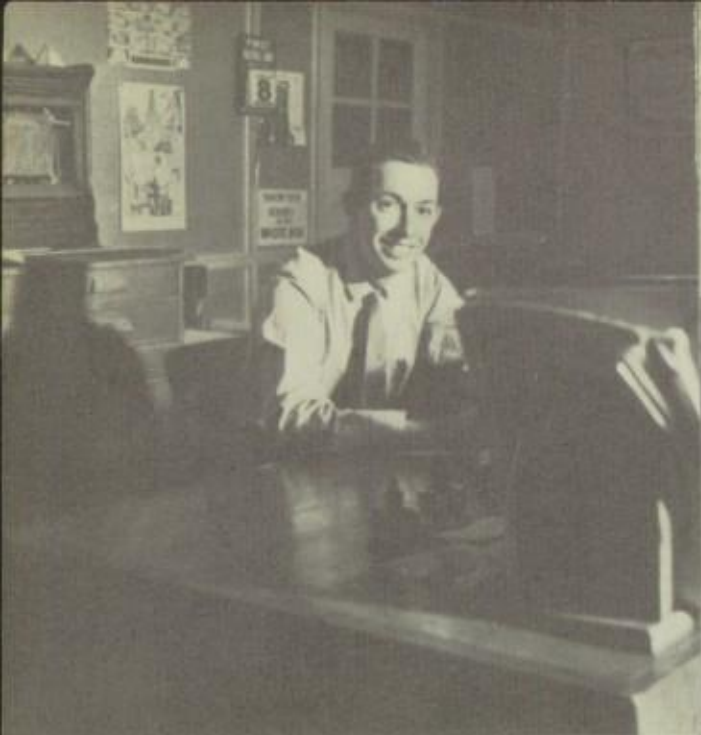

It is well, then, that this, the second volume of the Cat Tale takes its place among the traditions of your school, not only that it may record your present successes, but that in future years succeeding volumes may reveal how well you have improved upon those things you are now doing well today.

Homer S. Anderson
Principal

BY WORD AND PICTURE the activities and achievements of another year are here recorded. Those who prepared this book are to be congratulated for the originality and fidelity with which they have portrayed the "happenings on the hill." But the excellence and worth of a yearbook do not depend entirely upon the skill of the staff. Since this Cat Tale reflects the spirit of the school every student has had a part in its preparation. As you turn these pages, may your pleasure be increased through the knowledge that your contribution to Ponca City High School was all that it should be, that you did "help in all her undertakings" and thus made her a "stronger and nobler school."

BAND

Twirlers

BAND QUEEN

II

To a swell song,
Rosemary

Rosemary Buetow

The Band and Orchestra gave a joint concert in the spring, assisted by the mixed chorus. Dr. Boh Makovsky, Oklahoma A. & M. College, was the guest conductor.

PEGGY ERICKSON and GUS LITTLE have been selected for the 1942 Band Queen and Drum Major.

For the past two years Rosemary Buetow and Donald Hatfield have held these honorary places and have really strutted their stuff.

All School Play "Young April"

"YOUNG APRIL" in old October rings up the curtain on bevy of young meteorites. The seasoning may be off, but a salty production is delivered by a spicy cast. Traveling from the left is Jacqueline La Fave, and bespectacled Robert MacDonald stands behind Marian Cuzalina. Revis McGrew and Truman Smith are seated on the step while student directors John Carpenter and Hazel Spore hold center stage. Director Woodson Tyree is at the far right. Bob Hall and Joe Brown are stage hands. Norma Jean Radcliff, script in hand, is a student director.

I N T R A M U R A L S

WINNING BASKETBALL TEAM

WINNING VOLLEYBALL TEAM

WINNING SOCCER TEAM

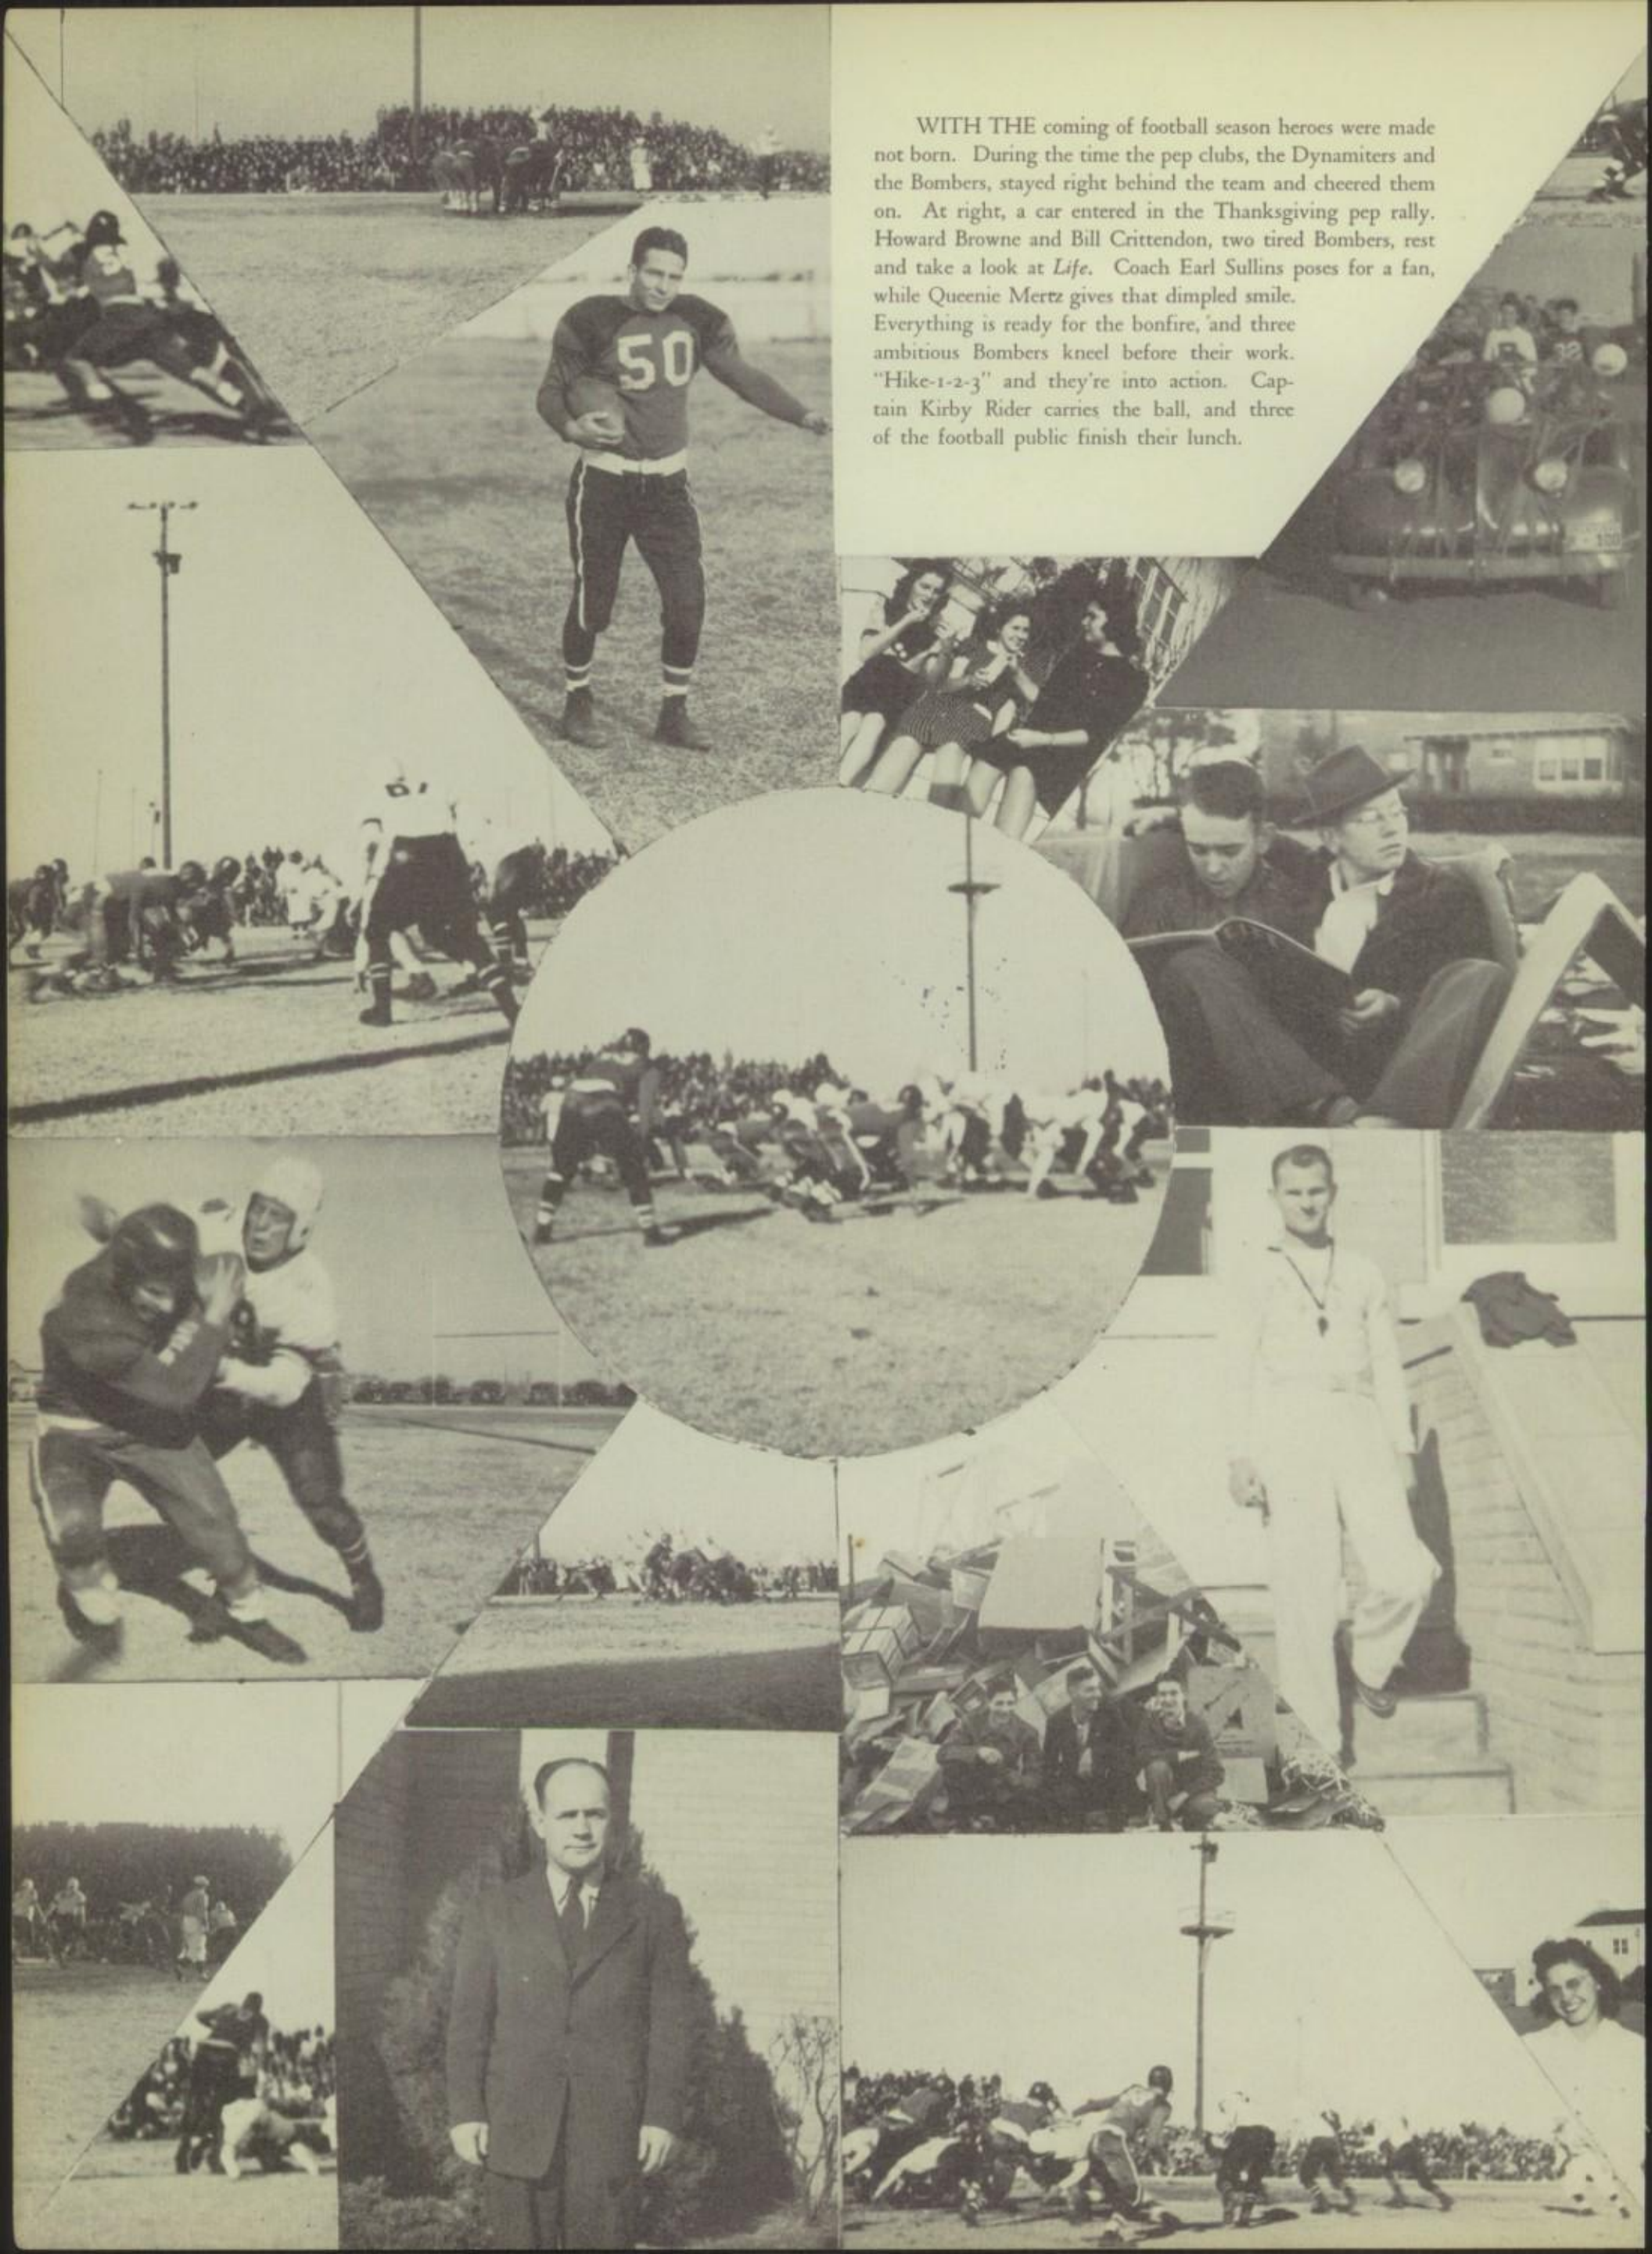

The tumblers and Earl Sullins give a spectacular demonstration. During basketball season they gave skillful performances between halves of the games.

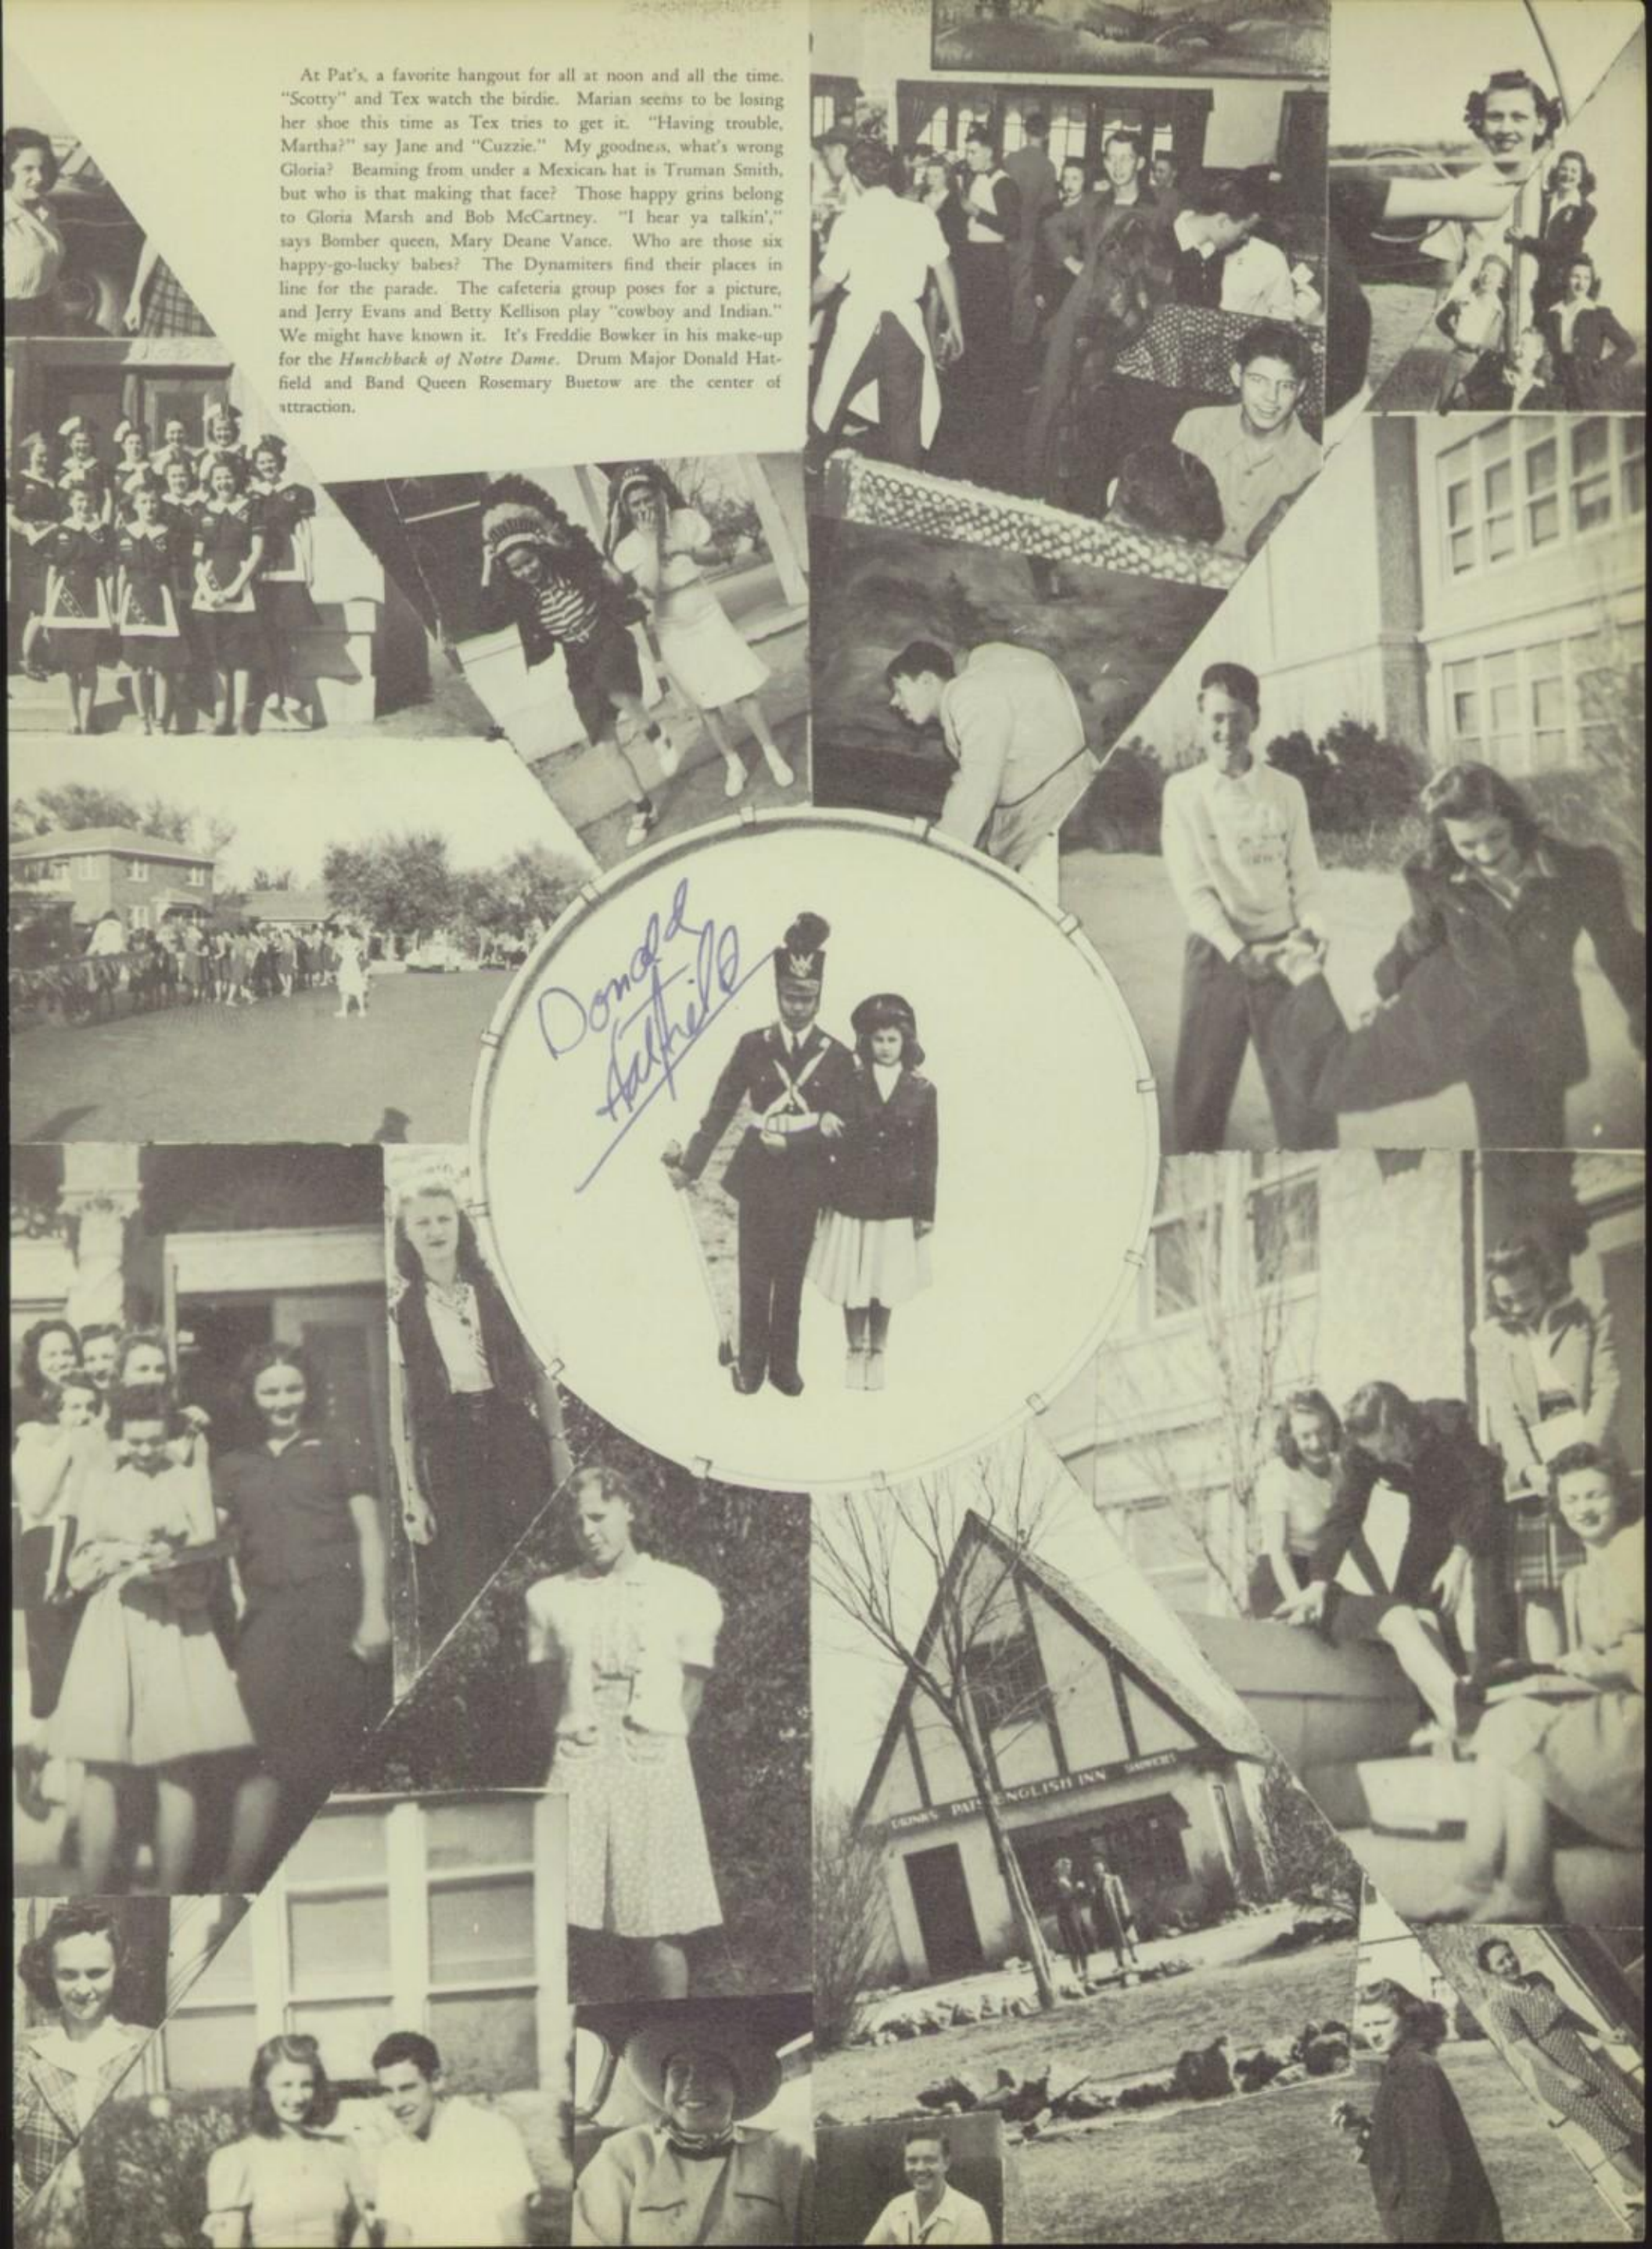

These are the victorious teams from the girls' volleyball, basketball, and soccer tournaments. Miss Inez Patterson, girls' physical education instructor, supervised the tournaments sponsored by the G.A.A.

WITH THE coming of football season heroes were made not born. During the time the pep clubs, the Dynamiters and the Bombers, stayed right behind the team and cheered them on. At right, a car entered in the Thanksgiving pep rally. Howard Browne and Bill Crittendon, two tired Bombers, rest and take a look at Life. Coach Earl Sullins poses for a fan, while Queenie Mertz gives that dimpled smile. Everything is ready for the bonfire, and three ambitious Bombers kneel before their work. "Hike-1-2-3" and they're into action. Captain Kirby Rider carries the ball, and three of the football public finish their lunch.

At Pat's, a favorite hangout for all at noon and all the time. "Scotty" and Tex watch the birdie. Marian seems to be losing her shoe this time as Tex tries to get it. "Having trouble, Martha?" say Jane and "Cuzzie." My goodness, what's wrong Gloria? Beaming from under a Mexican hat is Truman Smith, but who is that making that face? Those happy grins belong to Gloria Marsh and Bob McCartney. "I hear ya talkin'," says Bomber queen, Mary Deane Vance. Who are those six happy-go-lucky babes? The Dynamiters find their places in line for the parade. The cafeteria group poses for a picture, and Jerry Evans and Betty Kellison play "cowboy and Indian." We might have known it. It's Freddie Bowker in his make-up for the Hunchback of Notre Dame. Drum Major Donald Hatfield and Band Queen Rosemary Buetow are the center of attraction.

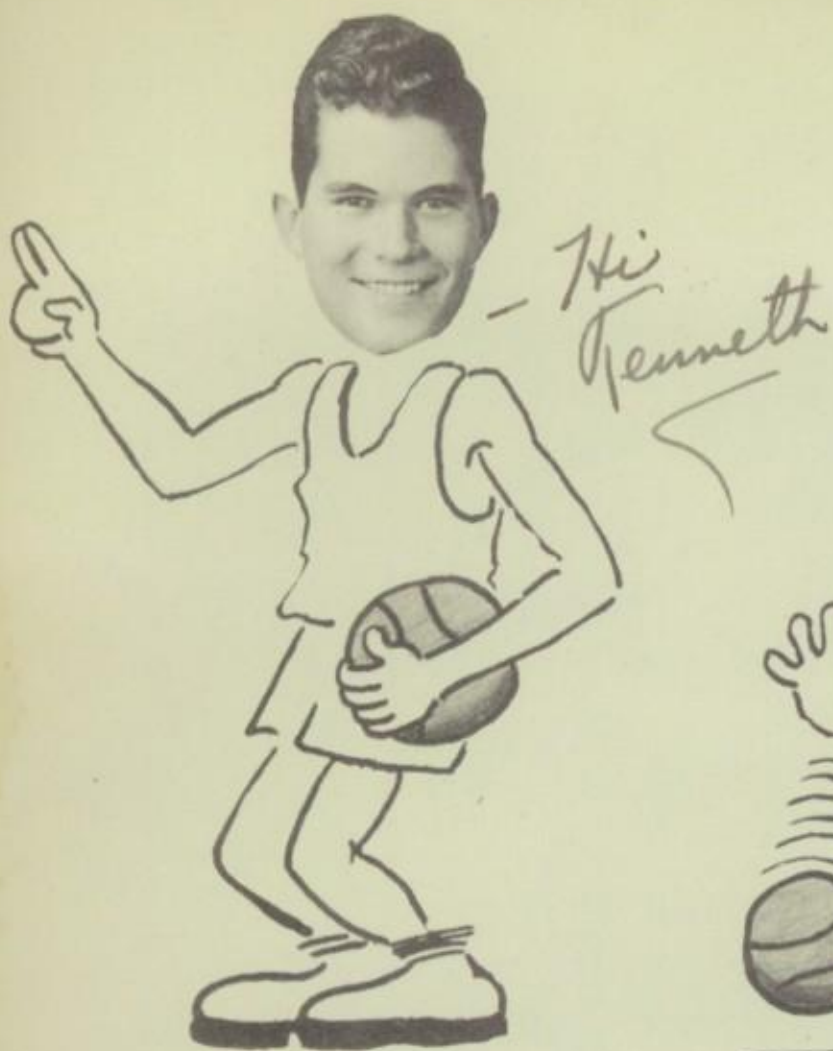

"HI THERE!" say Peggy, Marion, and Eloise. The life of any party, a bonfire for the Thanksgiving Pep rally. Virginia takes it easy, resting on Mary Lou, while Pauletta trucks on down. School spirited homerooms entered cars in the pep parade. Jim Oliver runs the bookstore. Saddle shoes seem to be the craze of the lasses in the corner, while "Chic" Taylor smiles for the camera man. Velma looks down on Mary Deane and "Buelah," Betty and Katy have an apple for their teacher, and Jackie and Pauletta look longingly at it. Miss Creamer fools the photographer, and Mr. Grantham grins from ear to ear.

Sadie Hawkins' Day

IT'S SADIE HAWKINS' Day, girls; get out and catch your man! Sadie Hawkins' Day was the foremost event during Leap Week in our school this year. F. M. Burdick (top left) seems to be the center of attraction, while Rosemary Buetow has hooked her a man, "Gomer" Jones (top right). Prince Po-Hi was royally crowned by Kathryn Whiting with beaded head band and feather while Donald Hatfield and Lee Drake attended him with their escorts, Fern Thompson, Lois McIntire, Dorothy Perdue, Charlotte Whitehurst, and Virginia Pollock. J. Lee now reigns as the first and only prince in school (center left). Carrying out the real Sadie Hawkins' theme in a Lil' Abner sketch are Eileen Chittum, Ruey Jean Sherbon, Charlotte Taft, Jo Earle Miller, Anne Boggess, and Imogene McDonald (bottom left).

THE PUBLIC SPEAKING GROUP is a combination of the Will Rogers Club, Debate Class, and the Masque and Gavel Club. Mr. Woodson Tyree and Mr. Hurst Swiggart are both faculty sponsors for the group.

Through the RADIO department, with Mr. Tyree as director, many activities in our school have been broadcast.

THE NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE is a select group of students from the speech department, with Hurst Swiggart as sponsor.

FIRST ROW: Jerry Evans, Fren Seal, Katy Kellison.

SECOND ROW: Virginia Sheridan, Margaret Lawson, Geraldine Morton.

THIRD ROW: Joan Evans, Jean Ketchum, Edith Huffstutter, Lois McIntire, Betty Kellison.

HOMEMAKERS' CLUB

THE HOMEMAKERS' Club is affiliated with the State and National Home Makers of America. Miss Eulyn Dynes is the sponsor of this group. A few of the most important things that this club has done in the past is to serve at teas and luncheons. They are responsible for all of the special dinners served here at high school and you can always find them serving at all banquets prepared by the cafeteria. They plan and serve all student council dinners.

Hurrah for our side! Seven cheerleaders help the crowd to pep up the team. (Center) Jim Jacoby makes 'em yell, while Aleece Taylor swings low. (above) Jerry Evans (top center) brings out the big noise, and they all snap it up for Elaine Mertz.

Cheerleaders

Blonde Pauline Buetow grins at the sun, which matches her hair. With a wink at the birdie, Kathryn Whiting calls for more action. Betty Barefoot hugs a tennis swing to sput on the Wildcats for sure victory.

Reel Rollers' Club

THE FUTURE TEACHERS' CLUB under the direction of Miss Mary Byerley, is for the purpose of preparing students who wish to enter the teaching profession.

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION is for girls who are outstanding in physical education. Miss Inez Patterson is faculty sponsor.

THE REEL ROLLERS' CLUB, with Donald S. Galbraith as sponsor, has charge of all picture shows shown in our school.

THE LIBRARY CLUB, under the faculty sponsorship of Miss Elva Curtis, has complete charge of the library and its workings.

Miss Eugenia Human organized the SPEECH CHOIR the second semester and is faculty sponsor for it.

TRADE AND EDUCA

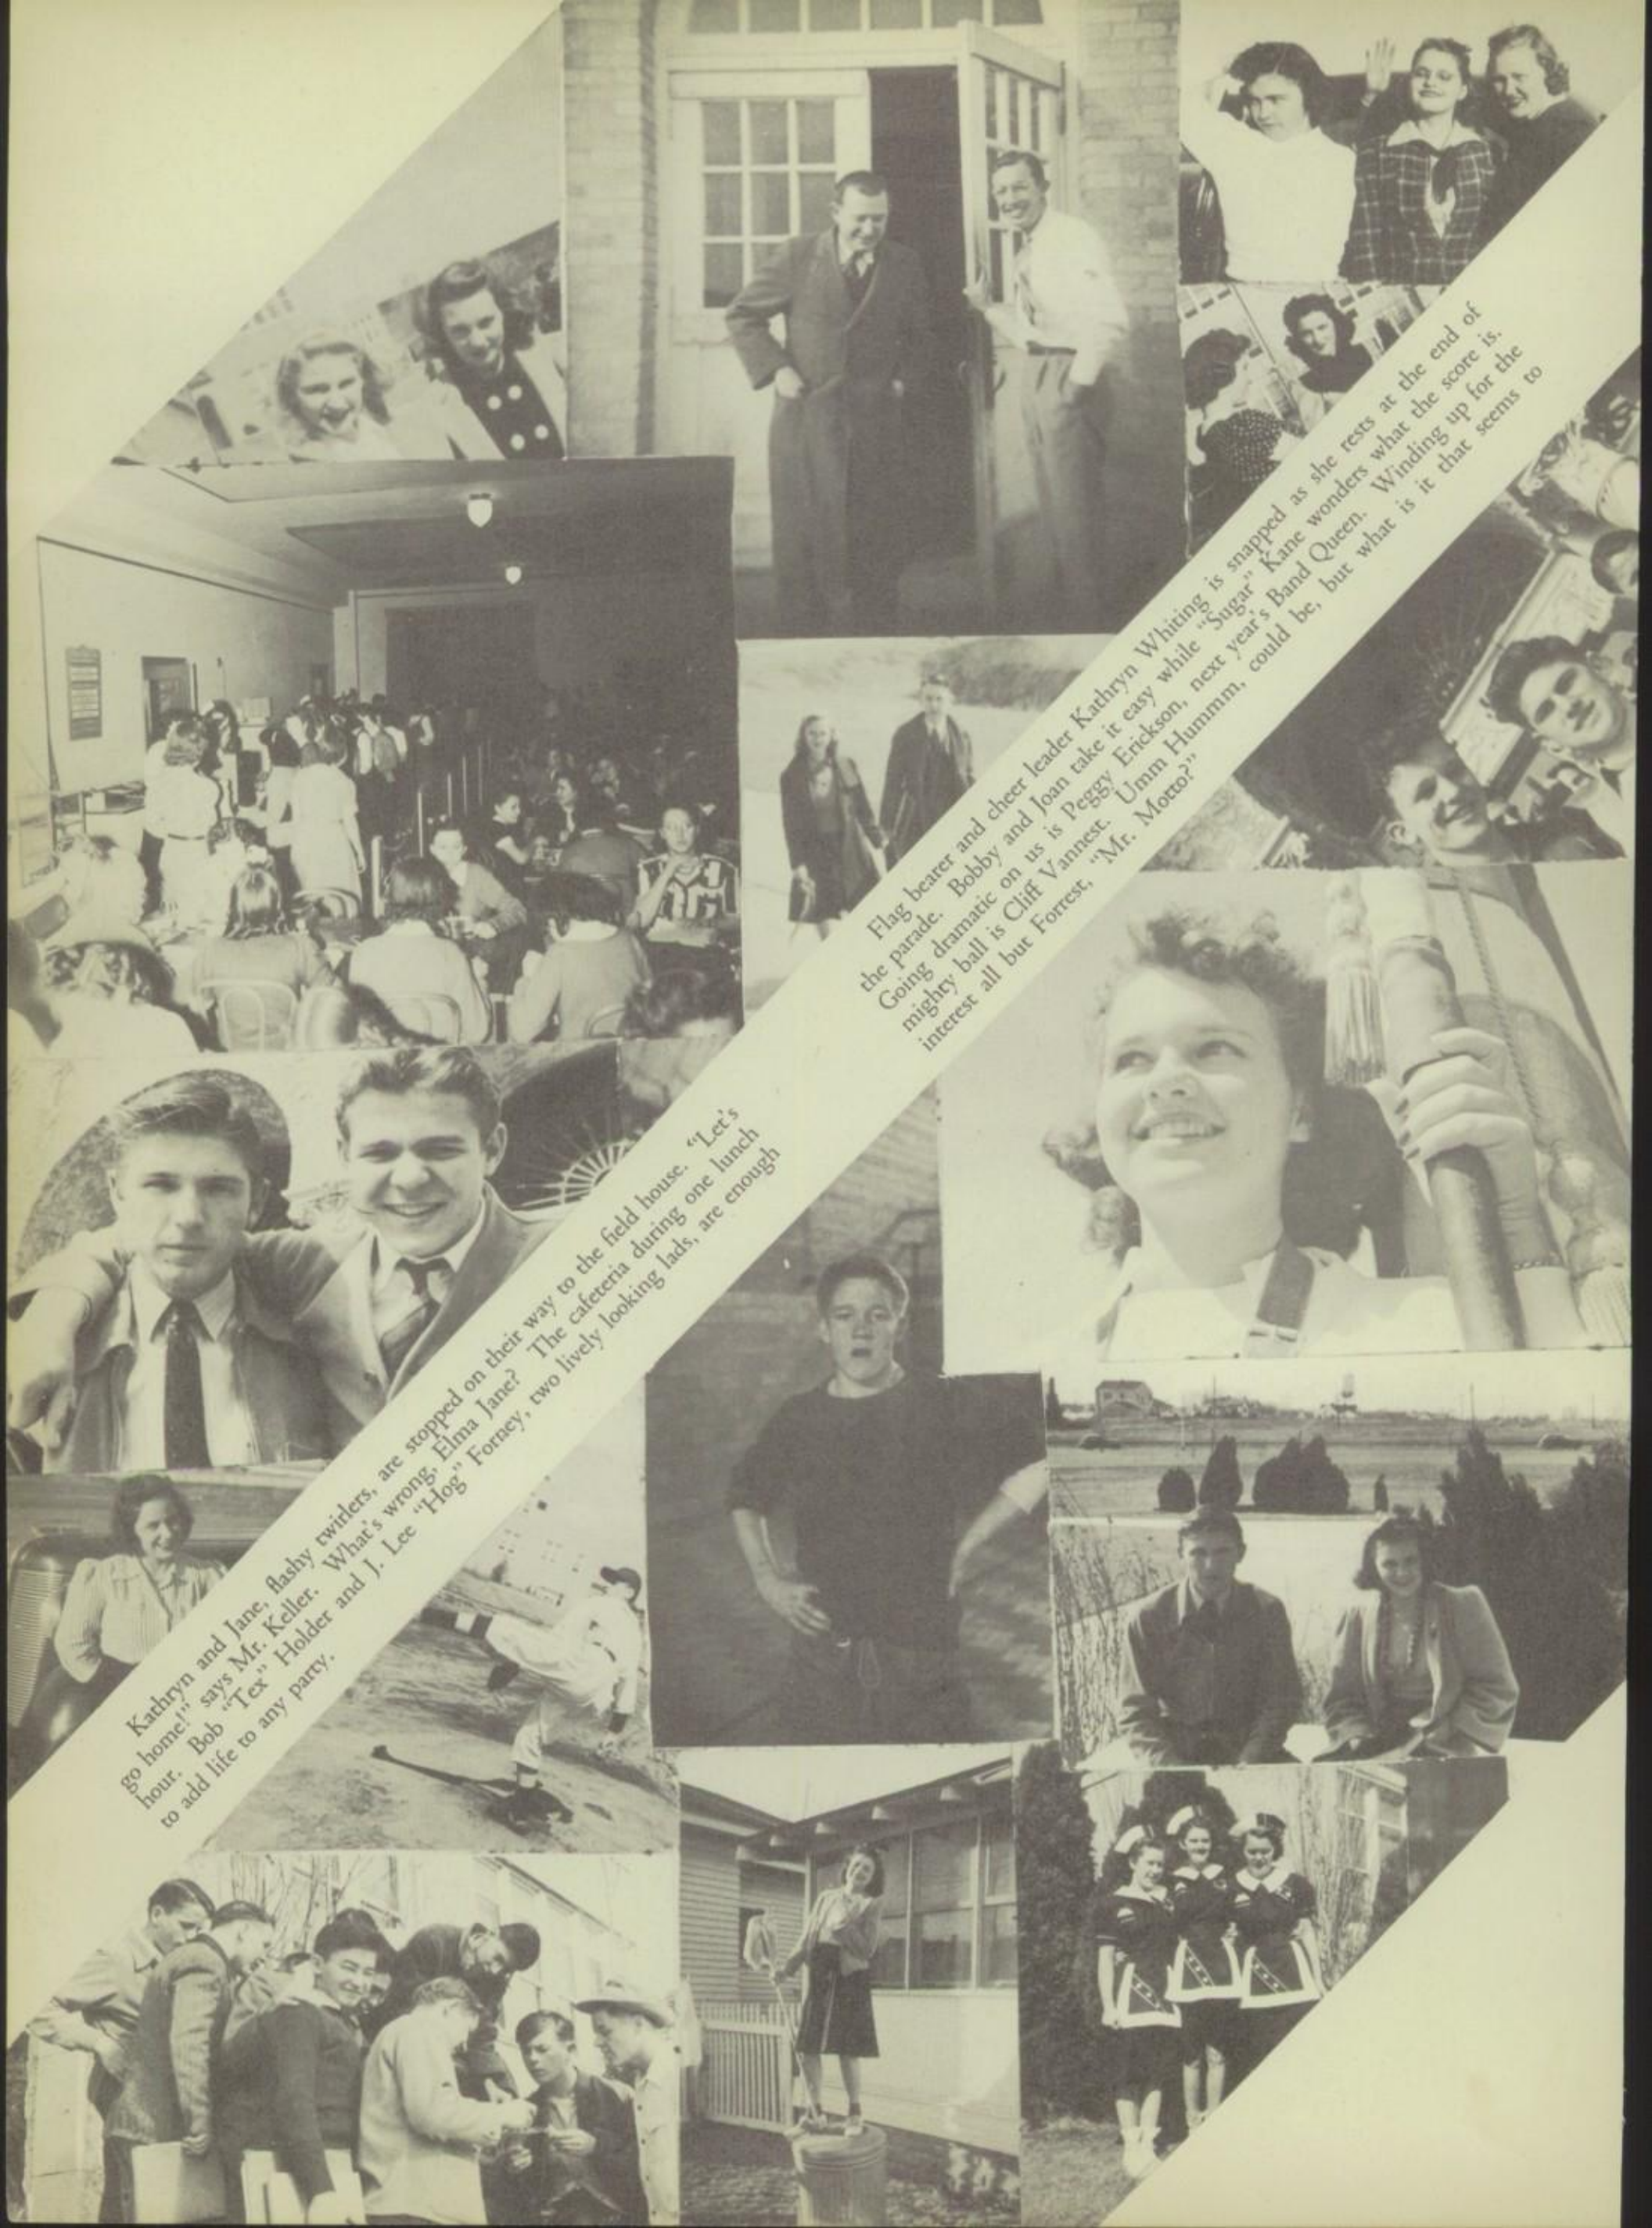

INDUSTRIAL TION

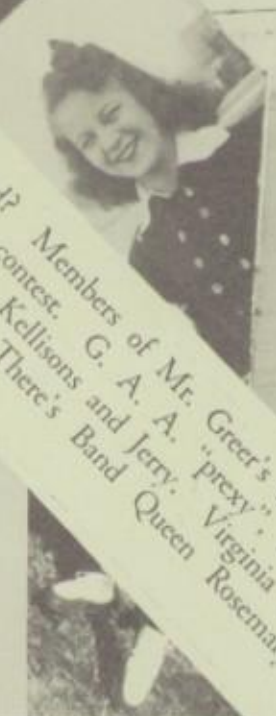

Kathryn and Jane, flashy twirlers, are stopped on their way to the field house. "Let's go home!" says Mr. Keller. What's wrong, Elma Jane? The cafeteria during one lunch hour. Bob "Tex" Holder and J. Lee "Hog" Forney, two lively looking lads, are enough to add life to any party.

Flag bearer and cheer leader Kathryn Whiting is snapped as she rests at the end of the parade. Bobby and Joan take it easy while "Sugar" Kane wonders what the score is. Going dramatic on us is Peggy Erickson, next year's Band Queen. Winding up for the mighty ball is Cliff Vannest. Umm Hummm, could be, but what is it that seems to interest all but Forrest, "Mr. Motto?"

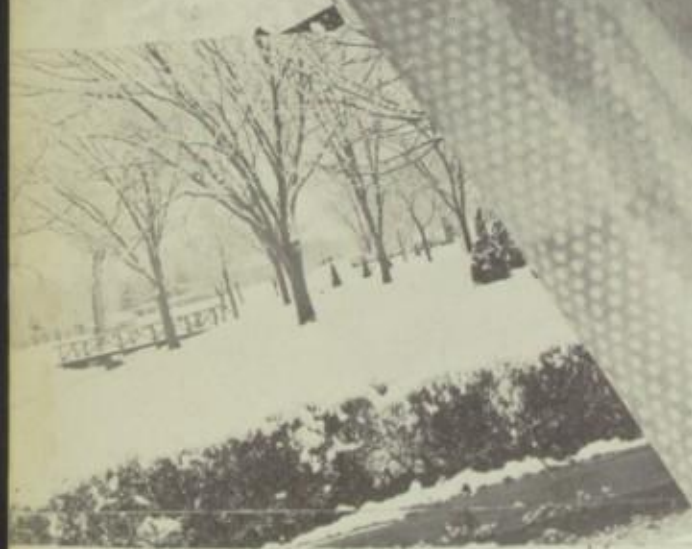

Chivalry is not dead after all. is it Raymond? Members of Mr. Greer's homeroom were first to buy 100% in the "Cat Tale" selling contest. G. A. A. "prexy" Frances Jones. "It's a deal," says J. Lee. Triplets? No, the Kellisons and Jerry. Virginia Pollock, F.F.A. Queen, really takes her honor to heart. There's Band Queen Rosemary

Just look at that cheer leader jump! Did you kill a rabbit with that gun to make those fur gloves, Elaine? Mr. Carlile poses for a second during practice. There's Jim Dillman and Bob Self and, below, Ralph Briggs and Gene Berry work hard at the News office on advertisements. Did it work, Joan?

COVERING as much winter campus as does the snow, the photographer managed to shoot some typical scenes. One of the most typical is a snap of Betty Kellison and Lee Drake together. Drum major Don Hatfield and flag toter, Kathryn Whiting take a squint at the camera. Maestro Sadlo gives some music a once-over. Vertie Taylor is leaning on the old top rail. Assistant ed. Jerry Evans smears ye editor's face with a handful of winter. It's the leaders at the annual leadership banquet. The camera scans the campus. A quartet grins at old Sol. Blanche Garrison and Bernice Doughty, a couple of galley cuties. 'Sno use, you're going to get hit. Who are you shoving, Morgan? They hit the cold trail to the shops, while Anne Boggess tries beginner's luck. Betty Lou Widener and Jim Oliver duck in the blizzard and oh, oh, it's time to get Kathryn.

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

Bette Sue uses her backhand.

ROSEMARY BUETOW

Rosemary Buetow, this year's girl Best Best Citizen, was the only Best Citizen of the current year who was elected as a Best Citizen in her junior year. Rosemary was Band Queen, vice-president of the Student Council, A. A. U. W. representative to Girls' State, D. A. R. Good Citizen, and was chosen as girl Best Best Citizen because she brought honor to each honor she received.

F. F. A.

THE F. F. A. boys this year as before attended fairs, livestock shows, and dairy shows and brought home ribbons and honors of all kinds to show for their splendid work in agriculture. Pictured are: (above) Otis Horton, (below) Ted R. Schreiner, faculty sponsor, Jay Lessert, Floyd Harden, Bud Carmichael, Paul Brown, and Otis Horton with their first and second prize chapter groups of Ayshires at the Sooner State Dairy Show and State Fair.

F. F. A.

TED SCHREINER and Roy Newman, Jr., are shown with Roy's prize winning Jersey, while (below) Mr. Schreiner is receiving the Honorary American Farmer Degree. This is the first time such a degree was ever presented to anyone in the state of Oklahoma at the American Royal Livestock Show in Kansas City, Missouri.

"Arms and the Man," by George Bernard Shaw, was presented as the Senior Class play. This is one of the finest "heavy productions" yet presented by our school. Mr. Woodson Tyree, dramatics director was responsible for this grand presentation. J. Lee Forney, Wayne Morgan, Louise Campbell, Virginia Pollock, Jacque La Fave, Ralph Briggs, Robert McDonald, and Raymond Brierly portrayed the characters in the play. Below are pictures of the set.

Student's Creed

I believe in Ponca City High School and in the things for which she stands — health in body, honest work, generous comradeship, and reverence for the spiritual. I believe in achievement and I pray for fortitude to accomplish what I set out to do. I believe in loyalty to our school and to her traditions. I pledge up on my honor to help in all her undertakings; in all that will make her a stronger and nobler school, and I promise to do all that is within my power to become a student who will match our building.

Wally, Lew, and Lloyd hurry back from Pat's. These are the girls in the cafeteria who prepare our meals. Posing on the front steps are five happy looking lads and lasses. Virginia Pollock is shown how it is done. How about that, Jerry and Raymond? Betty Kygar strikes the pose of "The Thinker." The flag waving in the breeze is a project of the '40 Student Council. It's lunch time in the cafeteria. "This is quite the thing!" says Elma Jane.
